ABOUT ME

My name is Rolando Miguel Soberón, independent freelance graphic and visual designer from San Juan, PR now living in Norwood, MA. With over 8 years in graphic design, I have had chance to work on variety of projects with agencies, individuals or companies.

I enjoy designing thoughtful and effective identities that aim to strike a balance between classic and contemporary aesthetics. I strive to realise projects through carefully crafted and well executed digital and print media as a result of constant research and experimentation into unconventional process and discovery.

Always forward...
