Digital Innovation Leader

@ andrea.greggo@gmail.com

📍 Gardiner, NY

🔗 www.linkedin.com/in/andreagreggo/

Every project I lead is centered on the customer, not only to meet their needs but to deliver a superior experience to keep them coming back. I love building teams and using the power of “we” to solve problems with compelling solutions. I use experimentation to learn from customers and make product decisions based on the story my data is telling me.

PROJECTS

OCR API with CLSTM neural network

Problem

Enterprise clients losing $M's in postal discounts, due to outbound addresses not being recorded, manual data entry not viable.

Solution

Address OCR translates mailing label images into parsed text, inserts into downstream programs and grows accuracy, resulting in $2M opportunity pipeline within 60 days.

Customer facing IOT analytics

Problem

HW device family in a churning market not providing benefit analysis to increase value visibility and engage clients.

Solution

Secure online dashboard providing +250K clients a detailed analysis of the product & personalized recommendations, resulting in +38% sales & -12% in churn.

SmartStamp - NFC mobile postage

Problem

Parcel shipping is growing significantly, but package mailing continues to be problematic and overly complicated.

Solution

NFC SmartStamps are programmed and read via a mobile app, creating a detailed electronic record, a notification for pick-up and a mobile POS for clients.

PROCESS

Client centered development

Customer Discovery

- Engage users, observe & learn
- Create concept mock-ups & get feedback
- Develop personas & user stories

Agile Development

- Define stories, sprints, & identify resources for MVP
- Detail KPIs, document event data reqs & data dependencies
- Run pilots, alpha & beta with customers

Experimentation

- Create learning plans & success criteria
- Define UX flows, develop interactive prototypes, test with users & iterate
- Evaluate best fit technology
